

Join ManeGait Therapeutic Horsemanship for the first annual trail ride & family festival called...

Gait (noun): Descendent of root word ManeGait. Place of comfort where children and adults with disabilities move beyond their boundaries.

Palooza (pronunciation: Puh-looze-uh) (noun): Something extraordinary of its kind. A party with non-stop fun. A festival.

Who: All ManeGait Riders ~ All Spring Session riders are encouraged to participate!
ManeGait Volunteers ~ Can be trail ride side walkers, horse leaders, event helpers and/or fundraisers!
Community Teams ~ Group partnered with a rider to help him/her raise money!

What: Riders raise money for their beloved ManeGait horses through the solicitation of donors and sponsors. Each rider will be paired with ManeGait volunteers and community teams, such as a local sports team, who will also solicit funds on their behalf. Minimum to participate is $80, but prizes will be awarded based on dollars raised! At the trail ride, each participant may ride in honor or memory of someone, in honor of their horse, or in honor of their own progress. Everyone will enjoy a festival with family and friends!

When: Sunday October 30, 2011
